

Dr. Margaret Smith

Margaret Smith is a coach, speaker, and author, and the President and Co-Founder of Signature Pathways, an Enneagram-based assessment and coaching company.

Her interactive coaching and training is targeted to the real world of work, focusing on direct conversations, decision-making, and team dynamics. Margaret works with leaders and business owners to help them discover their talents, strengths and struggles so that they can take their lives and businesses to the next level. She and her clients focus on sustainability and abundance.

Margaret speaks around the world on the topic of personal leadership and global prosperity, and how to show up and shine using the Enneagram as a success map. As an innovative thinker, speaker, and author, her mission is to catalyze global prosperity by inspiring entrepreneurs, executives, and organizations to move towards new possibilities from an abundance mindset.

Author of the first Money and Enneagram book, Money: From Fear to Love – Using the Enneagram to Create Wealth, Prosperity, and Love, is a pioneering book about our personal relationships to money from the perspective of the Enneagram.

She is a Certified Riso-Hudson Enneagram Trainer™, a Certified Integral Coach™, Certified Financial Planner™, and an adjunct business school professor at the Drucker Business School. She received her PhD in Business Economics from Harvard University, and her BA, summa cum laude, from Yale University.

*Be a Genius in the Business of your Business.
It's All About People.*