

Tal Ronen

Tal Ronen is a master coach and innovative leader who delivers high-impact business coaching and organizational workshops, trainings, and motivational corporate keynotes.

A highly trained visionary and critical thinker, Tal specializes in working with organizations that are committed to becoming market pacesetters and designing sustainable futures. Tal developed Reboot Technology for organizations to incorporate new sustainability models, create championship teams, strengthen top gun performance and cultivate MVP talent. He has built his coaching career with organizations committed to innovation and sustainable strategic design.

As the energetic driving force behind the Global Transformation Group (GTG), Tal's name is inextricably intertwined with his role as the visionary and founder of Executive and Organizational Coaching in Israel. He established a thriving coaching industry and is an unwavering stand as a champion of peace and sustainability in the Middle East.

GTG is a network of coaches, trainers & facilitators who implement practical methodologies that bring transformation and sustainable technologies to organizations and communities. We are Transformational and Professional Veterans globally aligned that our work serves the challenge of making Earth a secure and hospitable home for present and future generations.

PeopleGenius™ Coaching is GTG's US partner. Our purpose is to Reboot organizations interested in ensuring their future through Strategic & Sustainability Design models and workshops, and by sharing world trends and market research to secure their future.

Tal's impressive career includes coaching high-profile public figures and hundreds of executives who've gone on to drive the Israeli economy through their leadership and management skills in key private and public organizations. The organizations Tal has worked with include UBS Bank, McCann Erikson, Arison Group, Intel, Coca Cola, El Al Airlines, TelRad Networks, L'Oreal, Shikun Ubinui, Keter Plastic, Miya, Harel Insurance, Great Interactive, Visa Cal, Discount Bank and the Tel Aviv Municipality. Tal has coached and trained over than 750 coaches in The Coaching Academy & the Executive Coaching & Leadership Program offered at IDC Herzliya.

*Be a Genius in the Business of your Business
It's All About People*